

Employee Assistance Program

Tools & Solutions for Everyday Living

For Employees of McCoy Federal Credit Union

From simple concerns like decreasing stress to complex issues such as losing a loved one, your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) provides recommendations and information to help you with life's everyday, and not so everyday, challenges. With short-term or long-term disability coverage from Principal Life Insurance Company, you and your immediate family have access to free, confidential services offered through your EAP, as well as referrals to supportive resources.

The EAP is provided by Magellan Healthcare, an independent, industry-leading company that specializes in emotional health and wellness. Through your EAP, you can access assistance 24 hours a day by phone or online.

Services for employees and families

Licensed professionals provide confidential support and guidance to assist with concerns, such as:

- Managing stress
- Handling relationship issues
- Balancing work and life
- Quitting tobacco, alcohol or drug use
- Caring for children or aging parents
- Dealing with conflict or violence
- Working through grief and loss issues
- Controlling depression and anxiety

Help when you need it

- Telephone consultation, available 24/7, with licensed mental health professionals
- Live chat, online information and services
- Web-based confidential care
- Referrals to supportive resources
- Private Magellan touch-tone self-screening and audio library services

Face-to-face visits

Have an issue you'd like to talk about with an objective professional? You can meet face-to-face with a licensed mental health practitioner for up to 3 counseling sessions per problem per year, whether you're experiencing emotional and stress-related issues or conflicts at work or at home.

Web-based confidential care

Trouble sleeping? Feeling anxious or depressed? Our online cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) programs offer an option to traditional care. You have access to these confidential, clinically proven self-guided and self-paced programs any time, day or night.
